Each and every one of us is born with spirit. One's spirit desires to live life to the fullest. Culture is the facilitator of spiritual expression. It is the foundation of a 'good life'. As Indigenous people, we have a wealth of knowledge from which to draw to know how to live in balance, to care for ourselves, and others.

Swaying in my experience, I have begun swaying naturally and found this page while searching the internet for an explanation about why prayer causes swaying. I feel it relates to an energetic/physical benefit that is given to the prayer. Maybe the prayer is like a signal being transmitted, and swaying helps it transmit.

I realized the other day, after reading Nick Cave's wonderful thoughts on prayer, that Keep Going contains at least two prayers — the first being The Dunning-Kruger Prayer, the second being the "paper prayer" at the bottom of this post.. I find it annoying how much better Cave is at putting my thoughts into words than I am. "The act of prayer is by no means exclusive to religious ...

Praying to God: A Deeper Purpose. When it comes to prayer, our definition tends to set our destination. Commonly, people define prayer as simply talking to God, or telling Him about their needs. I like to define prayer as intimacy with God that leads us to the fulfillment of His purposes. This definition is truly life-changing.
