Up until 1773, America was a step child in the world of nations. We were an aggregate of wealthy English loyalists who controlled the politics and economy of this land and the other side was composed of rabble. Uneducated and not well off in terms of wealth, the Irebels had a "nawing" in their gut, and finally the strength and determination to take a stand against the English.

Many thousands of years ago, late in the Ice Age, humans journeyed across the Bering land bridge, from Asia into Alaska. Their descendants explored along the west coast of North America. As early as 1000 BC, they had covered nearly the entire continent. It is not known when the first people arrived in the Americas.

The early years. The American Cancer Society was founded in 1913 by 10 doctors and 5 laypeople in New York City. It was called the American Society for the Control of Cancer (ASCC). At that time, a cancer diagnosis meant near-certain death. Rarely mentioned in public, this disease was steeped in fear and denial.
