Re-inventing the wheel. Dr David Houston outlines how he has successfully grown his group of practices using a hub-and-spoke system. Our group of four practices is based upon the model of a large central hub (established 26 years ago) and three major 'spokes', which have been developed in sequence over the last eight years.

Dental Marketing System Inside Re- Inventing Dentistry

Abstract This paper argues that a shift is taking place in the fabric of capitalism as a result of a change in how the business of invention is understood. Using theoretical approaches that rely on the notion that capitalism increasingly tries to draw in the whole intellect, in the first part of the paper I argue that the new
